

Daniel-Favela Gary - Henderson

Daniel is a star on a rapid rise. After starring as the lead in L.A.'s longest running stage production EAVESDROPPER, he promptly booked one of the leads in the motion picture "Hunting Grounds." After production wrapped, he proceeded to book a supporting role in Richard Rossi's "The Roberto Clemente Story." He then starred in a music video series titled "Welcome to Fresh Coast" by up and coming rapper Icon. This 4-part series has garnered Daniel great reviews as well as receiving over 10,000 views per episode on YouTube. Daniel would love to thank his parents, sisters, cousins, both families, best friends, and you...the audience member.
