

Steve Apostolina - Gordon

Steve Apostolina first appeared on the L.A. Stages in 1983 in Theatre/Theaters' acclaimed production of CREEPS. Some other memorable productions include: ESTONIA YOU FALL at the Mark Taper Forum Lab, THE STEVEN WEED SHOW at The Edinburgh Festival in Scotland, DE DONDE at Friends and Artists, FLIGHT OF THE PENGUIN at the Limelight Playhouse, THE AMERICAN WAY at The Ventura Court, BLEACHER BUMS at The Century City Playhouse, and DON'T GO BACK TO ROCKVILLE at The Victory Theatre where he was fortunate to meet and work with his future wife. He has directed many productions including FLIGHT OF THE PENGUIN, THE AMERICAN WAY and BLUE COUNTY.

As a playwright, he received a Drama-Logue Award for FLIGHT OF THE PENGUIN and was nominated for an LA Weekly Award for Best New Play. His many film and television appearances include: "The Heist" with Pierce Brosnan, "ER", "Blue Desert," "Amen," "Dinosaurs," "Madagascar" and many others.

He was head writer and story editor for several anime series and has been a successful voice-over actor for the past twenty years. He is constantly inspired by his wife Karen and his son Nicholas.